AMERICA.

Philadelphia, Dec. 3.

SUNDAY Night last Count Zinzendorff arrived here from New-York, attended by ſome of the Moravian Brethren, who are, with a conſiderable Number more expected in the Spring, to be ſettled at Nazareth, on the Forks of Delaware; who have purchas'd the Lands that Mr. Seward bought there.

New-York, Nov. 23. The Ship mentioned ſome time ſince to be ſeen going into Jamaica without Maſts, proves to be a Ship of 24 Guns belonging to the Havannah, and bound from Leguira to that Place, with Money to pay off the Soldiers; the Bills of Lading were found, but they had not yet diſcover'd the Money.

Newport, Dec. 11. The Number of Recruits propoſed to be raiſed by this Colony being very near compleated, it is hoped they will ſail in the Colony Sloop Tartar, Capt. Benj. Wickham, in about ten Days. Sailors that lift aboard the Sloop are to be in Pay, and have Half the Prizes, if any taken.

Boſton, Dec. 15. We hear that two Schooners belonging to Marblehead, coming from Maryland to that Port, are caſt away on the Back Side of Long Iſland; one of them had on board 4000 Buſhels of Wheat, the other was laden with Indian Corn: The Wheat, we are inform'd, is entirely loſt, the Corn is like to be ſaved. The Maſters Names are White and James.

LONDON, February 6.

Letters of the 5th ult. from Riga ſay, that the Prince and Princeſs of Brunſwick, notwithſtanding the Orders to convey them as ſoon as poſſible to the Pruſſian Frontiers, have been detain'd there ſome Days, upon ſome Diſcoveries made by the Papers and Confeſſions of the Counts d'Oſterman and Munich, which requir'd ſome Explanation by the Princeſs; and as Madam Julia de Mengden was her Favourite and Caſh-keeper, an Account was demanded of her at the ſame Time how a very conſiderable Sum has been employ'd. 'Tis obſervable, that the Counts de Munich and Oſterman, and the Baron de Mengden, thinking their Highneſſes already arriv'd in Germany, advanc'd ſeveral Things which the Prince and Princeſs entirely retort upon them; as is, for Inſtance, the Propoſal which had been made to oblige the preſent Empreſs to renounce her Rights, or to retire to a Convent. 'Tis much doubted at Riga, whether their Highneſſes will leave that Place before the Priſoners Trials are over. Mean while they are lodg'd in the Caſtle, with all their Retinue, and treated with the Reſpect due to their Rank; but none are admitted to them except the Governor, and two or three Perſons appointed by the Court.

Letters of the 6th from Petersbourg ſay, that the Count de Lowenwold, having abus'd the Liberty of his Perſon by the Licentiouſneſs of his Tongue, is again clapp'd up in the Citadel; that the new Empreſs is to be crown'd at Moſcow the Middle of next Month; and that Proclamation has been made there, and at Riga, Revel, and all the other Governments of that vaſt Empire, enjoining all Perſons who have any Effects belonging to the Count de Munich and his Son, to the Counts d'Oſterman and Golofkin, and to the Baron de Mengden, to give Notice thereof to the Senates at Petersbourg and Moſcow, or the reſpective Governors of the Places to which they belong.

They write from Paris, that ten Men are to be added to every Company of Dragoons by the 4th of next Month, and that the Levies of the new Militia are compleated.

And from Vienna, that the Bavarians taken Priſoners at Schardingen amount to 406, moſt of 'em wounded; but that the Auſtrians had only 19 kill'd and 77 wounded; and that they took five Pieces of Cannon, a Mortar, 40 Grenadoes, 206 Muskets, a Hundred Weight of Gunpowder, and 12800 Charges, beſides Carriages, a Service of Plate for a Table, Silver-hilted Swords, Watches, &c.

Letters from Petersburgh ſay, that M. Groſs, Secretary of the Embaſſy of a certain Court, and Profeſſor of the Imperial Academy, who was Tutor to Count Oſterman's Children and liv'd in his Palace, diſpatch'd himſelf on New Year's Day with a Piſtol.

From Warſaw, that the Auſtrian Party which is very numerous in Poland ſpeak of the low Condition to which that Family is reduced, as an Affair contrary to the Intereſts of the Republick, which will thereby loſe the oldeſt Ally it has, and a Neighbour whoſe Friendſhip was always very ſerviceable to it againſt the Ottoman Power; but tho' this Party ſeems inclinable to form a Confederacy, it is not believ'd they will ſucceed in it, becauſe they have not much Intereſt in the Crown Army, the Generals of which are far from being a Majority of Auſtrians.

According to Letters from Tunis, there's no Manner of Hopes of any Accommodation between that Regency and France, the Dey having drawn a Spunge over all the Debts due to the French Nation, and forbid Foreigners as well as his Subjects to pay them.

Thoſe from Rome ſay the Cardinal de Tencin has receiv'd from France the Ribban of the Order of the Holy Ghoſt, vacant by the Death of Cardinal Polignac.

On the 7th they had four Earthquakes at Leghorn, two of which were very violent and had done conſiderable Damage both to Churches and Houſes, ſo that the Government had enjoin'd publick Prayers to God, and prohibited Operas and Maſquerades. One Anna de Silva is lately dead there, who was 115 Years old, and had been twice marry'd, but was never blooded nor had taken Phyſick, and preſerv'd her Memory to the laſt.

They add from Paris, that on the 18th ult. the Spaniſh Ambaſſador there made a moſt magnificent Entertainment by way of rejoycing for the Delivery of Don Philip's Conſort, at which there were near 3,000 Perſons in Maſquerade.

The Mary, Cooper, from Jamaica for London, founder'd at Sea; the Crew were taken up by the Humber that was loſt near Padſtow.

The War-horſe, Fletcher, from Maryland to London, is ſtranded near Padſtow.

Yeſterday an Expreſs arriv'd at the Admiralty Office, with an Account of the Oxford Man of War, Capt. Mayne, being arriv'd at Spithead from Cumberland Harbour in Cuba, which Place ſhe left the Beginning of December laſt; and 'tis ſaid that Admiral Vernon with the Fleet and Forces was ſail'd from that Place, either for Jamaica or Cartagena.

On Thurſday laſt the Right Hon. Sir Robert Walpole had a prodigious great Levee at his Houſe in Downing-ſtreet, at which were preſent divers of the Quality, and many other Perſons of Diſtinction, to pay their Compliments to him, on his being created Earl of Orford.

To-morrow their Royal Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Wales will go to St. James's, to pay their Compliments to his Majeſty, and likewiſe to the Duke and the Princeſſes.

After which, 'tis ſaid, his Majeſty, with the Prince and Princeſs of Wales, the Duke, &c. will dine in Publick, there being a happy Reconciliation.

We are likewiſe inform'd, that their Royal Highneſſes will ſpeedily remove from Carleton-Houſe to Leiceſter-Houſe, and have the uſual Attendance of the Guards, &c.

On Thurſday next there will be a Private Call of Serjeants at Law, when Counſellor Pauncefort, Attorney-General to his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, and Counſellor Denniſon, will be call'd to that Degree with the uſual Formality; and the latter is to ſucceed Judge Page, as one of the Judges of the Court of King's-Bench.

THE HISTORY of the HEAVENS; conſider'd according to the Notions of the POETS and PHILOSOPHERS. Compared with the DOCTRINES of MOSES.

In Three Parts.

Part I. Containing the Origin of the Poetical Heaven. In which is clearly demonſtrated, that the Gods formerly ador'd by the Heathens were neither Genii nor Men, but Symbols and Hieroglyphical Characters of the particular Seaſons, &c. over which thoſe pretended Deities were ſuppoſed to preſide.

Part II. The Origin of the Heaven of the Philoſophers. In which all their General Syſtems of Nature are examin'd, and prov'd inconſiſtent and abſurd.

Part III. Experimental Demonſtrations, that Light, Fire, Air, Water, Sand, Gold, and all Metallick and other Uncompounded Bodies, are ſo many Elementary Natures, neither capable of Deſtruction nor of Generation; and, no more than the Organized Species and the whole World, can have had any other Phyſical Cauſe than the Will of GOD.

The Whole tending to prove, that what Experience teaches us, on theſe important Points, exactly correſponds with the Doctrines of Moſes.

A Work calculated to inform the Youth who ſtudy the Belles Lettres, in the Origin of the Heathen Gods; and to inculcate the Genuine Philoſophy, in oppoſition to the imaginary Mechaniſms of the Epicurean and Carteſian Hypotheſes.

Printed for J. Osborn, at the Golden Ball in Pater-noſter-Row.

PROPOSALS for Printing by SUBSCRIPTION,

AN ESSAY on the Agreement between the WORKS of the Roman Poets, and the REMAINS of the Ancient Sculptors and Painters; being an Attempt to Illuſtrate them mutually from one another.

By the Rev. Mr. SPENCE, late Profeſſor of POETRY, and Fellow of New-College in Oxford.

As the Author is very ſenſible that the Publick is almoſt tired out with Subſcriptions, he was long unwilling to think of adding to their Diſtaſte of that Method of Publiſhing; but as his Work is of too Expenſive a Nature for him to hazard the Event of it, he finds himſelf obliged, either to drop all Thoughts of Publiſhing it, or to try whether the Publick has any Inclination to encourage it. 'Tis for this Reaſon that he puts out theſe Propoſals.

The Book is intended to be printed in Folio; and there will be about Fifty Prints in it: Which will contain a Collection of ſome of the moſt choſen Pictures, Statues, Gems, and Medals of the Ancients.

The Price is a Guinea on Subſcribing; and a Guinea on the Receipt of the Book in Sheets.

If there are Five Hundred Subſcribers by this Day Twelvemonth, the Work ſhall be then put into the Preſs; and carried on with all the Diſpatch that the Plates will allow of.

If there are not Five Hundred Subſcribers by that Time, whatever Money has been paid in, ſhall be returned with Thanks to all thoſe who were willing to have encouraged this Undertaking. By me JOSEPH SPENCE.

SUBSCRIPTIONS are taken in by R. Dodsley, at Tully's Head, in Pall-mall.

Dr. ROBERT EATON's

BALSAMICK STYPTICK.

Truly prepared and ſold at the Doctor's late Dwelling-Houſe, now Mr. DUTTON's in Salisbury Court, Fleet-ſtreet.

THIS Medicine reſtrains in a moſt ſurprizing Manner, all internal as well as external Hemorrhages, i. e. it infallibly and quickly ſtops all dangerous Bleedings at the Noſe or Gums, ſpitting or vomiting Blood; alſo the immoderate Flux of the Hemorrhoides or Menſes; bloody Urine or Stools, bleeding of large Wounds, &c. (if uſed according to the plain Directions given with it) as will appear by the Certificates of ſeveral Eminent Phyſicians, and in the large Account of this Medicine, written by the Doctor himſelf, and dedicated to the College of Phyſicians, a little before his Death.

It keeps good for many Years, at Sea or on Shoar, at Home or Abroad, i. e. in all Climates, therefore muſt be univerſally Uſeful.

The Doctor not only obtained his Majeſty's Letters Patent for the ſole Vending of this moſt Excellent Medicine; but alſo a Clauſe in a late Act of Parliament, exempting this Medicine from the Inſpection of the Cenſors of the College of Phyſicians, to which all other Medicines are liable.

N. B. Some of the Apothecaries prepare a Styptick from a Preſcription of Helvetius, and uſe it in the Room of Dr. EATON's; but whoever tries both, will ſoon be perſuaded that Our's exceeds their's in all Reſpects, in a moſt eminent Degree.

To SMELL to, &c.

The Moſt Noble, Volatile SMELLING-BOTTLE in the World, lately much improved.

WHICH ſmelled to, inſtantly relieves Perſons in the moſt diſmal fainting or ſwooning FITS, and in a Moment removes Fluſhings, Vapours, Dulneſs, Head-ach, Megrims, &c. It takes off all heavy Sleepineſs, retards Swoonings, keeps up the Spirits to a Miracle, and by its Uſe admits of no Fainting; but invigorates and enlivens the whole Man, recreates and makes chearful, tho' never ſo ſad, and in a Moment raiſes all the Senſitive Faculties.

It is alſo to be taken inwardly by Drops, which effectually takes off and eradicates the very Cauſe; for it potently relieves, comforts, and ſtrengthens the Brain, creates and corroborates the Stomach, removes Sickneſs from it, helps Digeſtion, cleanſes the Blood; and, in a Word, is the greateſt Cephalick, Stomachick, Hepatick, and powerful Aromatick poſſible.

Whereas many Perſons of both Sexes perfume their Handkerchiefs with a few Drops of it, and find that in uſing it ſo, it is of ſingular Service in all the Caſes above-mentioned; and many Gentlemen, Ladies and Others uſe it after this Manner, purely becauſe it gives a moſt fragrant and delicious Odour, that conſtantly both delights and relieves the Senſes, not only better than any thing of a muſky Kind, (which is really hurtful to moſt Conſtitutions) but it really takes off what ſuch Things do occaſion; and alſo relieves the Head and Brain from any ill Effects of common Snuff, and inſtantly diverts from, and prevents the bad Conſequences of any ſudden, naſeous, offenſive Smells; therefore is extremely neceſſary for all Gentlemen, Ladies, &c. always to be carried in their Pockets.
